Youth today do not realize that one is modern only when his thoughts and actions bring out something new, which can set an example to the rest of the world. Imitating only the western outlook in lifestyle, leaving aside their values, is not what modernism is. Should we consider youth modern if he opts for a dozen girlfriends and then pretends to be ignorant when dowry in marriage is concerned ?

The family also plays a vital role in shaping one's life. If the urban population in India is divided into two broad divisions, the elite and the middle class, we will find that youth belonging to both these classes suffer from severe frustrations. The parents in the higher society are so busy with their work that their children are left neglected. Loneliness, tensions arising out of parent's unhappy relations and family feuds result in psychiatric depression in the youth.

The case is similar in the middle class families, though with a difference. Lack of attention at home ruins them. The situation is not so grave with the girls as they generally prefer to stay at home, whatever its conditions be. But young men, desperate to find some refuge; quite often come in contact with drugs, alcohol and other illegal activities. Neither are they happy with the society nor is the society happy with them.

- 1) When is the youth considered modern ?
- 2) Who plays a vital role in shaping their life ?
- 3) Which are the two broad divisions in India ?
- 4) What causes depression in the youth ?
- 5) How do some young men seek refuge ?

VII. Write a paragraph in about 80 – 100 words on one of the following topics using the hints given :

5

Air pollution in big cities :

- 1) Health hazards and dangers of air pollution.
- 2) Too many vehicles emit poisonous gas, carbon dioxide, dust particles.
- 3) We do not get healthy air to breath because of cutting of trees.
- 4) Smoke pollution from the industries.

OR

Negative impact of using cellphones :

- 1) Bad for health, radiation from cell phones can cause brain tumor.
- 2) Use of cell phones while driving/riding causes accidents.
- 3) Use in public places disturbs others.
- 4) Excess use affects relationship between parents and children.

VIII. Prepare a summary of the following passage bringing out at least four important points. Suggest a suitable title to the summary.

5

Punctuality is a necessary habit in all public affairs of a civilized society. Without it nothing could ever be brought to a conclusion and everything would be in state of chaos. Only in a sparsely populated rural community is it possible to disregard it. In ordinary living there can be some tolerance to unpunctuality. The intellectual, who is working on some complex problem has everything coordinal and reproached for the matter in hand. He is therefore forgiven, if late for the dinner party. But people are often reproached for unpunctuality when their only fault is cutting things fine. It is hard for energetic, quick-minded people to waste time, so they are often tempted to finish a job before setting out to keep an appointment. If no accidents occur on the way, like punctured tyres, diversion of traffic, sudden descent of fog, they will be on time. They are often more industrious and useful citizens than those who are never late. The over-punctual can as much be a trial to others as the unpunctual. The guest who arrives half an hour too soon is the greatest nuisance. Some friends of my family had this irritating habit. The only thing to do was to ask them to come half an hour later than the other guests. Then they arrived just when we wanted them.
